So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill, reported by Mr. Montgomery, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from the contemplated bridge over the river Susquehanna at Conowingo creek to the Pennsylvania line, was read the second time, considered and passed.

On motion by Mr. Wilmer, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to provide for the relief of the poor, in certain cases, and for other purposes, was taken up for consideration, and having been read the second time, was put into the hands of the speaker for the question on its passage; when on motion by Mr. Nicholson, the bill was withdrawn from the chair for the purpose of amendment, and laid on the table.

On motion by Mr. Farquhar, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act relating to revolutionary officers and soldiers, and their widows, was then taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed, without amendment.

On motion by Mr. Hall, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to establish a bank and incorporate a company under the name of the Washington county bank, in Washington county, was also taken up for consideration. And in the progress of the second reading thereof,

Mr. Barnes moved, that the further consideration of said bill be referred to the first day of June next,

The question thereon was taken and determined in the negative.

Mr. Barnes then moved, that the enacting clause of the first section of the bill be stricken out.

And the question thereon, being taken, was also determined in the negative.

And on the further progress in reading said bill,
